

Maillet

The recession of springs can be represented by an exponential decay function

$$Q = Q_1 * e^{(-\alpha * t)}$$

where  $Q$  is the discharge and  $Q_0$  represents the discharge at the beginning of the recession period,  $\alpha$  is the recession constant and  $t$  is time. This relationship was first proposed by Maillet.

From:
<https://hydro-wiki.de/> -

Permanent link:
<https://hydro-wiki.de/en/hydro/maillet>

Last update: 2024/04/10 10:02

